

The Partizan PPB-1 is a pole mounting bracket designed for access control equipment installation. Constructed from metal with a white finish, the bracket provides mounting capability using included metal straps with 200mm length. The unit features compact dimensions of 118 × 102 × 45 mm, suitable for pole-mounted deployment of compatible devices.

| Product details           |                   |
|---------------------------|-------------------|
| Model                     | PPB-1             |
| SKU                       | 1344              |
| Mechanical specifications |                   |
| Material                  | Metal             |
| Color                     | White             |
| Dimensions                | 118 x 102 x 45 mm |
| Metal straps              | 200 mm            |
| Common                    |                   |
| Warranty                  | 3 years           |